Volume VI December 2016

Trade Fair

By Sophie D.

The Trade Fair for Sunnyside School started at 6:00pm after school on Thursday, December 15. The Trade Fair was held in the Sunnyside gymnasium. The Trade Fair is when fifth grade students sell crafts they have made. The money raised by the fifth grade students goes to a charity of their choice. After the Trade Fair, the fifth grade students can trade with other fifth grade students if they still have crafts left over. For the Trade Fair the fifth graders can have a partner. Also during the Trade Fair fifth graders make posters listing the prices of their crafts and try to get people to buy their crafts. The Havre Daily News comes to Sunnyside to get ads from fifth graders to put in the newspaper.

Book Review

The Divergent series: Divergent, Insurgent, Allegiant

Carolyn T.

The amazing author that wrote this book series is Veronica Roth. This series is full of action, excitement, cruelty, surprises, love, factions and death. The main character in this story is Beatrice Prior. She lives in the faction system. The factions are community divisions that analyze people based on their aptitude result. There are five factions and they all represent a different life style. Candor is honesty, Abnegation is selflessness, Erudite is intelligence, Amity is peace and Dauntless is bravery.

There are also the "factionless" people who have lost their faction for numerous reasons. Beatrice was born in Abnegation, one does not leave an original faction until the age of sixteen. Every faction has a leader, the leaders speak for that faction and make the major decisions. Then, to determine in what faction Beatrice will be, she has to take an aptitude test. When she has an aptitude for one of the five factions, she must choose the one that fits her qualities the best.

Some people have an aptitude for more than one faction, they call these the divergent. Some people think the divergent are dangerous, like Jeanine Mathews. Jeanine is the Erudite leader, who is determined to find and kill all of the divergent as soon as possible because she cannot control their minds. When Beatrice gets her results, she is dumbfounded. In a world of factions, one choice can transform a person-forever. Read this wonderful series to find out what Beatrice gets on her aptitude test and the extremely irregular life ahead of her. Hope you enjoy the books as much as I did!

Stick with me and we will travel the world.
