Paras & Teachers Assisting/Teaching Students with Special Needs

Lisa VonBergen

FREE
TRAINING FOR:

Paraprofessionals
Para/Teacher Teams
And Others Who Work with Students with Disabilities

August 7, 2019
Best Western Plus Havre Inn & Suites
Havre, MT

Presented by:

Region II CSPD
Montana Office of Public
Instruction

Students who meet criteria for Visual impairments, exposure to trauma, Attention Deficit Disorder, sensory needs or sensitivity, Twice Exceptional status, deafness or hearing impaired, slow processing speed, Cognitive delays, Learning Disabilities, Emotional Disturbance, etc. are enrolled in our classroom and schools every day. This six hour PIR will provide you the opportunity to experience school from their perspectives, better understand their needs, challenges, and behaviors, and become familiar with instructional strategies, accommodations, and modifications to better meet their needs.

Our Presenter:

Lisa VonBergen is a Student Services Administrator with Great Falls Public Schools who specializes in empowering school staff members to understand learning differences, meet the needs of students with disabilities, and fulfill legal obligations related to serving this population. Lisa has experience in teaching elementary general education, Special Education classrooms, Day Treatment programs, individual tutoring, and meeting educational needs of students who are incarcerated or receiving education in alternate settings through the Department of Corrections. She has a Bachelor's Degree in Elementary Education, a P-12 Endorsement in Special Education, and a K-12 Master's Degree in School Administration. She has provided training on this topic to Special Education teachers, paraprofessionals, bus company employees and general education teams.
